Remembering Monica Trautman

Richmond's library has been blessed with reliable volunteers, staunch supporters, and loyal staff members throughout our long and rich history. Monica Trautman was not only a reliable volunteer, staunch supporter and loyal staff member—she was a dedicated and caring friend. Monica and our library's namesake, Lois Wagner, forged a faithful friendship shortly after the Trautman family moved to Richmond in 1972. Along with that friendship came Monica Trautman's involvement in Lois Wagner's library world. Monica was always willing to share her time and talents to assist Lois and Richmond's library. Through the years she decorated for numerous library events, prepared luscious desserts for library teas and special occasions, graced the library with lovely flowers from her garden, ran errands—and shelved books.

Monica was eventually hired as a substitute library employee by the City of Richmond. After Lois Wagner died in 1998, Monica did all she could to help sustain the library and encourage its staff during those distressing and difficult days. Sadly, Monica Trautman passed away on July 22, 2015.

The Staff of the Lois Wagner Memorial Library fondly remembers Mrs. Monica Trautman with hearts of appreciation and gratitude. She was a true and devoted friend to Lois Wagner, Richmond's library—and to us. Monica will be greatly missed in our library and throughout her community of Richmond, Michigan. ♥
