October is a very special time for the Lois Wagner Memorial Library. This month signifies the beginning of our library—one hundred and three years ago! Since 1912 Richmond's public library has been faithfully serving our community. "Happy Birthday to us!"

The Friends of the Lois Wagner Memorial Library are hosting an October Book Sale called "Book-Toberfest." This fall book sale will feature gently used books and materials at VERY reasonable prices! Please check our October calendar for dates and times. All proceeds from the Friends "Book-Toberfest" benefit the library.

The Library Staff & Friends of the Library are sponsoring a scarecrow in the City of Richmond's 3rd Annual Scarecrow Contest, organized by the Richmond Area Chamber of Commerce. Our Charlie Brown "Great Pumpkin" scarecrow is located by St. Augustine Catholic School. You can cast your vote for our scarecrow at Laser Mark-It, First State Bank or via the Chamber's website: www.richmondcoc.org
The last date to vote is October 28, 2015.

Check our October calendar for the dates and times to the following programs, meetings and events scheduled at the library:

- Senior Exercise (low-impact)
- Toddler Lap Sit
- Pre-School Story Time
- Library Board Meeting
- Friends of the Library Meeting
- Richmond Readers (Please contact the library for details)
- Writers Group
- Card Class (RSVP, $1.00 per card)
- Friends "Book-Toberfest" Book Sale

Patrons and Staff wished our Systems Manager, Walt Morgan goodbye in September. Walt left the Lois Wagner Memorial Library for a full-time IT position in Port Huron.

Walt's computer knowledge...
and sense of humor,
is greatly missed!

"Good Luck, Walt!"
