"Oh, you better not shout! You better not pout! You better not cry! I'm telling you why..."

Santa Claus is coming to town, at the Lois Wagner Memorial Library!

Santa will be visiting the library on:

Friday, December 11th, from 6-7pm

Drop in for a fun visit with Santa Claus and take home a treat! Don't forget to bring your camera to capture this holiday event! (Please use the side door.)

Don't forget to check our December calendar for the following library activities and meetings:

Toddler Lap Sit
Pre-school Story Time
Santa's Workshop
Senior Exercise
Card Making Class
Richmond Reader's
Library Board Meeting
Friends of the Library
Meeting and Christmas Party

Friends of the Lois Wagner Memorial Library Opportunities

You won't want to miss the Friends Annual Christmas Cookie Sale on Friday, December 11th, from 1-7pm. Richmond's best bakers contribute specialty Christmas cookies. Everything is homemade and sells for only:

$6.00 per pound

The entire month of December the Friends of the Lois Wagner Memorial Library will sponsor their Annual Children's Christmas Book Sale!

Children's Books are on display for purchase in honor or in memory of others. After purchase these delightful books are added to our library's Juvenile Collection. A holiday bookplate, worded by the giver, is included in every book. What a wonderful way to remember others during the holiday season.

Your thoughtful gift is not only a gift in honor or in memory of others...it's also a gift to the children of your community! ♥

The Library Friends are hosting their "Nearly New" Book Sale the month of December!

Books c2013—2015 are available at bargain prices.

Festive paperbacks are $2.00-$4.00 per bundle.

What great holiday gifts!
