In Honor of National Library Week

Jeanette Mini

Friends of the Lois Wagner Memorial Library

In Memory of Robert Rowley

Jim & Bev Kammer

In April the library is collecting non-perishable canned and boxed food items for the Gleaners Community Food Bank of Southeastern Michigan, "Food For Thought" program. Please place your donations in the container by the library's front door.

Let's help provide nutritious food for those in need. Last year we collected 851 pounds of food, which provided approximately 706 meals!

~ National Library Week ~

April 10-16, 2016

Through the years the library staff has heard numerous patrons exclaim, "What would we do without the library?" Thankfully, we live in a community that assures its residents that they will never have to deal with that question! The Lois Wagner Memorial Library has faithfully served Richmond and its neighbors since 1912—and we look forward to many more years of dedicated library service.

National Library Week honors libraries, librarians, and library employees all over the USA. However, our library is very grateful to receive honor and appreciation "week in and week out!"

Yes, it's "National Library Week!"

A week set aside to honor Libraries, Librarians, Library Staff—and all who have a ♥ for libraries—people like YOU!

The Friends of the Lois Wagner Memorial Library's
Winter Reading Contest was a great success!

Participants read a total of 435 books...
and a grand total of 148,472 pages!!

The Adult Reading Contest Winner is:
Janet Caughell

The Teen Reading Contest Winner is: Tim Hall Jr.

Janet & Tim both received a Kindle Fire from the Friends of the Library.
"Congratulations!"
