Volume 7, No. 10 "The Star Newsletter" 2016

Vote! Vote! Vote!

Yes, it's an election year and we all need to vote. As we well know...every vote counts. And every single vote counts in the Richmond Chamber of Commerce Annual Scarecrow Contest too!

The library's scarecrow entry features the childhood classic, "Charlotte's Web." Our scarecrow is complete with story characters: Fern, Wilbur the pig, and Charlotte in her web. A vote for "Charlotte's Web" is a vote for the library's entry...and a HUGE "thank-you" to Rob Pinskey for his help in recreating this delightful childhood story!

"Welcome, Marla Beard!"

The Lois Wagner Memorial Library is happy to introduce the newest member of our library team: Marla Beard. You'll find Marla diligently working at the library on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons and evenings—as well as every Saturday.

Marla is fairly new to our community but community service is not new to her. She sings with the Richmond Community Choir and is an active member of the Richmond Area Historical & Genealogical Society—along with her husband, Jon.

Please introduce yourself and welcome Marla Beard to the library staff. ♥
