♥♥ Loving the Lois Wagner Memorial Library ♥♥

The staff of the Lois Wagner Memorial Library recently asked various patrons what they love about the library. Here are their heartfelt words:

“You guys are so nice and you guys are like my family! It’s not awkward when I come in the library.” Daisi Dixon (age 12) ♥

“I love the books, computers and the availability of everything...the whole thing!” Edith Johnston ♥

“The library staff and volunteers are great; they help and understand people. They have compassion and empathy when I need help” Tom Parsch ♥

“There’s so many books and interesting things to discover in the library! And the librarians are all very nice!” Kim Hake ♥

“I love the warmth, comfort, and communication in the library. And I love all the books and seeing children in the library.” Donna Shuboy ♥

“How do I love thee? Let me count the ways!”

Quote by:
Elizabeth Barrett Browning

“As a patron who uses the library practically every day, I find that the staff under Library Director Julianne Kammer, is courteous, professional and always helpful.” JG Grimmer ♥ (aka “The Man @ Computer #9”)

“The service is always good and the library staff is always patient. The library is very organized too!” Tim Hall II (age 16) ♥

Boys & Girls (ages 8-12) are invited to a Valentine Card Making Class with Mrs. Denise Robson on February 8th, 2017, at 4pm, at the library.

Make a cute card for your favorite Valentine!
All card making supplies will be provided.

♥ Sign-up is required as the class size is limited ♥

♥♥ “Lovely” things to do at the Library ♥♥

(Check the February Calendar for dates and times)

♥ Are you seeking a worthy cause that needs help? Look no further than your public library! The Friends of the Lois Wagner Memorial Library are always looking for friends to help them help us.~

♥ You can shed a few extra pounds and tone up at Senior Exercise! This friendly group meets at the library on Monday & Wednesday mornings for a session of low-impact exercise.~

♥ The Writers Forum is a creative group of wordsmiths. Hone your love of words with likeminded writers at the library.~

♥ Everyone loves getting a card in the mail...especially a handcrafted one! Be a maker (and sender) of beautiful greeting cards at the library’s monthly card class.~

♥ The Richmond Readers are forever and always reading, it seems. Join them in reading and discussing their latest book.~

♥ Coloring has made a comeback in the adult world! Bring your own book and coloring tools, or use those provided by the library. Color to relaxing music and stress-free conversation.~

♥ The Knitty-Gritty Group enjoys knitting and crocheting together at the library. Whether you’re a beginner or an expert...bring your favorite yarn, knitting needles and/or crochet hooks and create something warm and fuzzy.~

♥ Story Time & Lap Sit is the perfect time to introduce little ones to their library. They’ll enjoy fun and exciting stories, poems, rhymes, songs, finger plays, crafts and play time.~
