★ "Book Chats" ★

The Friends of the Lois Wagner Memorial Library are hosting Book Chats @ the library on Thursday, March 16, at 7pm. Join other book lovers for light refreshments as you listen to presenters briefly chat about their favorite book. This will be the third "Book Chats" held at the library. The previous sessions were well attended and greatly enjoyed. This is a wonderful opportunity to hear about a variety of interesting books you might enjoy reading. You'll like "Book Chats!"

"Discover Your Roots"

The onset of Spring is the perfect time of year to dig into your family roots at the Lois Wagner Memorial Library. Read about local ancestors in the Richmond Review Newspaper (1889-1967); browse through "Past and Present of Macomb County, Michigan" and/or the "History of Macomb County." We also have "Sketches of Richmond" by the late Alice Hicks Beversdorf. You can view "The Voice" Newspaper, 1985—to current date, or peruse our library's vast collection of Richmond High School Year Books, "The Echo" from 1912 to 2016. Enjoy the dig!
