The “Star” Newsletter Volume 8, Issue 5 2017

Twins Natalie and Allison received their “400 Books” Sticker and a Growth Chart! They’re well on their way to reading “1000 Books before Kindergarten!”  “Great job girls, and mom Sherri!”

Ask about getting your infant or child involved with “1000 Books before Kindergarten.” There are special stickers and prizes for every 100 books you read to your child. When they’ve reached the goal of 1000 books they’ll receive a gift card! “Yeah!”

Purr-fect!

Becky Brockett, Systems Manager

many years.

She began her library career as a substitute worker. However, for over a year she’s been on our staff schedule on a regular basis.

Becky is very excited about her new position and its many responsibilities. She’s eager to grow and learn along the way!

Many of you already know Becky as that smiling, helpful person assisting at the circulation desk. Or maybe you know Becky from her kids school activities, coaching, running and her attendance in community functions. Now you’ll know Becky Brockett as that smiling, helpful person who is eager to assist you at the library’s computers!

“Congratulations, Becky!”

The Lois Wagner Memorial Library is delighted to announce that Becky Brockett has accepted the position as our new Systems Manager. Becky is a life long resident of the City of Richmond and has been employed by the library for
