Orphan Train in Michigan, 1854-1927

Thursday, August 10th at 3 p.m.
Library Meeting Room

Al & David Eicher will be at the library for a lecture on the Orphan Train riders in Michigan, depicting in great detail the selection process and life of an Orphan train rider. If you liked the popular fiction title "The Orphan Train", or are a Michigan history buff, this presentation is for you! Pre-registration is required-spots are limited, so don't delay!

NEW Apps for Digital Materials

Did you know you can read magazines and books for free on your smart phone and tablet? If you have a library card with us you can!

Libby, OverDrive's new e-book app, is just the thing for those who like to read books on mobile devices or tablets. The new app is user friendly, and materials can be borrowed for 14-21 days.

RBdigital (formerly Zinio) lets you easily download hundreds of different magazines to your phone or tablet to keep. Subscriptions include US Weekly, Family Circle, HGTV, and many more!

If you're interested, take a look at the download instructions in the library at our Digital Resource Center, online at www.cityofrichmond.net/library or call to schedule a one-on-one tutorial with our Systems Manager.

Resume Workshop with Michigan Works!
