Richmond's Town Clock Celebrates its 94th Birthday

Children in our community participated in a time-honored library tradition to commemorate the Town Clock's special day: The Town Clock Coloring Contest. Our library's namesake, Lois Wagner, started this annual Coloring Contest in 1993 to celebrate the birthday of Richmond's ticking timepiece. For twenty-five years boys and girls have colored an original drawing of the Town Clock, created by Colleen Kelley. This year sixty-two children participated, with eighteen winners in nine age/grade categories. Judging was very difficult as everyone submitted their best coloring picture! The winners were awarded a $5.00 gift card for the Richmond Dairy Queen at our picture-taking ceremony.

Individual photos of the Town Clock Coloring Contest winners are available on our library's website and our facebook page!

A Special Thank-you to the Friends of the Library

The Lois Wagner Memorial Library is fortunate to have supportive and thoughtful Friends! One of the many areas they help fund is the library's Annual Summer Reading Program. This program benefits children in our community by encouraging summer reading as well as participation in themed summertime library activities. "Thank you Friends!" ♥ ♥ ♥

Summer Fun @ the Library

The library has been rockin' this summer with lots of opportunities for all ages! We've had our "Libraries Rock" Reading Program, Monday Movies, Tuesday Craft Time, Lap Sit, Card Making Class, Knitty Gritty, Richmond Readers, Writers Group, Book Folding Class, Senior Exercise...and more! August will be a busy month too, with many of the above library activities, as well as:
