Our library's fun and educational
Summer Reading Program (SRP)
continues through the month of July. The theme is:

"A Universe of Stories"

The SRP is funded by the Friends of the Library

The main purpose of this annual program is to encourage youngsters to read throughout the summer months.

The Lois Wagner Memorial Library commemorates the Town Clock's "birthday" each year with a coloring contest. Since the contest began in 1993, staff member Colleen Kelley has drawn the coloring picture of the Town Clock celebrating its special day. That's a lot of birthdays and twenty-six different coloring pictures! Richmond's Town Clock turns ninety-five years old on July 17, 2019...and its still ticking strong. Coloring pictures are available in the library and also online. All Town Clock Coloring Contest pictures must be turned in by July 17th. Completed pictures will be judged on the 19th of July. Winners will be contacted for a group photo and the following prizes will be awarded:

Dairy Queen Gift Cards! 😊
