Saving $ the Library Way

If you specified email notification on your library account, you received a message informing you of how much you saved by using the library. Our former Library Page, (a voracious reader, and now a teacher), Anna LaGrois Schroeder, received an email that she saved nearly $6,000 by using the Lois Wagner Memorial Library in 2019! Anna enjoys recreational reading for herself but also reads aloud to her little cutie, Fiona. She's instilling a love of libraries and reading while saving a lot of money!

How much did you save by using the library last year?
Free Material = Saving Cash
And that's a win-win!

Library Happenings in March

Check our monthly calendar for meetings, as well as educational and entertaining opportunities at the library.

Sign-up may be required for some events. If you have any questions please contact us.

A Library Limerick...

A happy young lady named Mary wanted all of the books she could carry.
"Books and info I'll get, and some time on the 'net...
And it's all for free at the Library!"

In the month of March why not "march" into the library and get a library card? We offer full service library cards to residents of the City of Richmond and Richmond Township, active duty military personnel, or those who own physical property in the City of Richmond or Richmond Township (upon showing proof of ownership.)

Courtesy cards are available to Casco and Columbus Twp. residents. Courtesy cards may only be used for items owned by our library.

The Go Library Card

The Suburban Library Cooperative and SLC member libraries (of which the Lois Wagner Memorial is one) are proud to promote area businesses through an exciting no-fee promotional program called the Go Library Discount Program. The goal of this program is to promote area businesses that agree to provide a discount to SLC member library patrons who show their library card.

Just show your Lois Wagner Memorial Library card and you'll save at selected area merchants and restaurants. There is a link on our website of participants—like this local business...

After seeing your library card, Achatz will give you 10% off your total purchase!
