SUMMER READING RECOMMENDATIONS

If you have hit a summer reading slump, check out some of these new book recommendations from patrons and staff! All of these titles can be found at the library.

Our Woman In Moscow by Beatriz Williams

Rabbits by Terry Miles

A deadly underground game might just be altering reality itself in this all-new adventure set in the world of the hit Rabbits podcast.

The People We Meet on Vacation by Emily Henry

For fans of "When Harry Met Sally", a story of two fools in love who might be the only ones who don't know it yet.

The Music of Bees by Eileen Garvin

Three lonely strangers in a rural Oregon town, each working through grief and life's curveballs, are brought together by happenstance on a local honeybee farm where they find surprising friendship, healing—and maybe even a second chance—just when they least expect it.

Arsenic and Adobo by Mia P. Manansala

The first book in a new culinary cozy series full of sharp humor and delectable dishes—one that might just be killer. Perfect for fans of Joanne Fluke.

CHILDREN'S FALL PROGRAMS

Preschool Storytime: Ages 3-5

Tuesday, Sept. 21st-October 12th
10:00 a.m.

Lapsit: Ages 16-36 months

Thursday, Sept. 23rd-October 14th
10:00 a.m.
