Remembering Christy Schroeder

You may remember seeing Christy Schroeder behind the library's Circulation desk, cracking a joke or talking about one of her favorite subjects-Elvis or NASCAR. She had a smile for every patron and was beloved by her coworkers.

Christy started working at the library in 1995 and retired in January 2011; during her time here, she also volunteered with the Richmond Community Garden Club and the Friends of the Library. She then continued to volunteer at the library for a few years after retirement, being sure to check out a few of her favorite mystery authors along the way. Christy will be missed by her loving family and the many people she touched during her time here at the library.
