MISS RICHMOND & COURT

Proudly serving the festival again this year is 2019's Miss Richmond, Lexi Radjewski, and her court members, Grace Thomson and Paige Thomson.

Since being crowned in 2019, Lexi has been attending the honors college at Oakland University. She is earning a degree in applied statistics with a minor in dance, her goal is to be a biostatistician. At Oakland, Lexi is part of the dance team Vitality and hopes to compete this year. She is so excited to be part of Good old Days again!

Grace graduated high school from Cardinal Mooney Catholic with honors in 2020. She now attends Grand Valley State University and is studying Finance. She is so excited to be back as a part of the Miss. Richmond Court and is looking forward to all of the Good Old Days activities.

Paige is playing softball at the collegiate level at Jackson College on a full scholarship. She is studying Dental Hygiene and is working at Wesley Orthodontics when she is home on breaks. This past year, Paige was honored with All Conference and All Regional Softball Honors all while carrying a 4.0 GPA.

2021 GRAND MARSHALS

The Grand Marshals of the 2021 Good Old Days Festival are Harold & Therese Teska. The Teskas are lifelong residents of Richmond; they were married in 1965 and have three children and five grandchildren.

Harold is known as the Richmond Good Old Days Festival handy man. He has helped with several addition/modifications to the EMS hall, built the pavilion at the Beebe Street Park, and other various buildings around the town. Harold has also served on the Richmond Volunteer Fire Department since 1978, and has been an usher at St. Augustine Church for 50+ years.

Therese has been an active member within the community, especially with St. Augustine Church. She has been a part of the Altar Sodality and the St. Augustine Festival for the past 50+ years. Along with these commitments, she has helped with funeral luncheons, the yearbook, and served on the board for several years at the church.
