2025 MISS RICHMOND & COURT

Portrait courtesy of Marion's Studio

Miss Richmond 2025 is Grace Monkowski, a senior at Richmond High School. Grace is active in many extracurricular groups, including the National Honor Society, Green Club, and the Student Athletic Advisory Council. She also plays on the RHS Varsity Tennis team.

Grace's favorite part of being Miss Richmond has been getting to know people in the community, and she is looking forward to all of the festivities of the Good Old Days.

Miss Richmond's court members are Faith Thomson and Olivia Ryan. Faith is a 2025 Richmond High School graduate and will be attending Ferris State University in the fall to study Secondary Education. She is excited for her second reign as a Miss Richmond Court member. Olivia Ryan is also a 2025 Richmond High School graduate who will be attending Macomb Community College in the fall to study Radiologic Technology. Her favorite part of being on court has been interacting with all of the kids throughout the parades and events they attend.

2025 GRAND MARSHALS RICH & SUE WEINERT

The Grand Marshals of the 2025 Good Old Days Festival are Rich and Sue Weinert. Rich and Sue are longtime Richmond residents; Rich was born in Richmond and Sue in Holly, Michigan. Both are from small towns with small town values. They met through work friends and were married in 1980. Their two daughters attended Richmond Community Schools and they now have 5 wonderful grandchildren, ages 6 and under.

Rich worked in advertising for 42 years and was part of the team that created the Chevy Truck “Like A Rock” campaign. He retired in 2015 and turned his focus to local volunteerism. He has been on the Board of the Richmond Area Historical and Genealogical Society, and he is also a member of the City of Richmond’s Planning Commission and TIFA Board. He was honored to receive Richmond’s 2021 Volunteer of the Year Award and the 2024 Alexander Macomb Historical Award from the Macomb County Heritage Alliance.

Sue received her Bachelor’s Degree in Journalism from Michigan State University and began working as an editor at TV Guide. After their first child was born, Sue stayed home to raise both girls, but her love of sewing drew her to work part-time at a local quilt store in New Baltimore. In 1994, she embarked on a dream to own her own quilt store, Richmond’s “Sew Together”, where she continues to do the work she loves. Sue formed a local quilt guild in Richmond, is a founding member of the Anchor Bay Quilters, and has supported the American Cancer Society, the Richmond High School band, the Richmond Area Historical and Genealogical Society, the Lois Wagner Memorial Library, and many other local causes dear to her.
